

Add a second account holder

Use this form to let us know you'd like to add a second account holder to your account.

Please complete this form and return it to us at 'Freepost: RCI BANK' (that's all – no stamp or address details needed).

Important information

If the new account holder is not an existing account holder with RCI Bank already, we will need two documents: one to verify their name (eg copy of passport), and one to verify their address (eg recent utility bill or bank/building society statement).

We don't need any extra evidence for existing customers. For further guidance our team is happy to help – just call 0345 6056 050 or visit rcibank.co.uk/agreement for more information.

Our agreement with you is made up of the following documents: Terms and conditions of our relationship, managing your account, the account information summary and the Privacy Policy. You can find all of these documents enclosed. By completing and submitting this application, you are confirming that you have read and understood these documents. The documents can also be viewed at rcibank.co.uk/agreement

Your deposits are protected by the Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS) up to £85,000. An information sheet can be found enclosed with this document. For more information on the FSCS compensation scheme you can visit www.fscs.org.uk or at rcibank.co.uk/security/guarantee-scheme.

Nominated Bank Account

For both account holder's to be able to transact with this account the nominated bank account linked must be in both account holder's names. To change the nominated bank account and allow both account holder's to transact with the savings account please also complete the nominated bank account section of this form. If your nominated bank account is already in joint names with the person you wish to add to your RCI Bank account, you will also need to complete the nominated bank account section, confirming both names as they appear on the account. If you do not hold a joint nominated bank account with the new account holder, your existing nominated bank account will remain in place and the new account holder will not be able to transact.
